No. 85 F.L., Uweloa, Honolulu, Oahu. 23 March 1852
N.R. 757v3

The Land Commissioners of the Hawaiian Islands, Greetings: I hereby /present my claim/ for quiet title on my claim for land. There are six lo'i with a cultivated kula and house site, all together with the taro land, at Kaluaalai, an 'ili of Kalihi, Oahu. This is a true claim which I got in the time when Kinau was living and have lived here peacefully until this time with no objections from anyone.

With thanks,

UWELOA X, his mark

M. Kekuanaoa, sworn for claimant, I know the land of claimant in Kalihi valley. It is an ili called Apili, I think, divided in many pieces of kalo & upland. I have always heard he obtained it from Kaahumanu in 1829 or 1829 and he has always occupied it in peace since the gift. I know of no counter claim, could not define the land particularly, though I know its outlines.

Mr. Adams said he had no questions to ask.

John Ii, sworn for claimant, I know the land of Mr. Adams in Kalihi Valley. I think its name is Apili. I cannot give the boundaries in detail. The land was given to claimant in 1839 or 1829 by Kaahumanu and he has occupied it ever since in peace and quiet. There is no counter claimant.

Mr. Adams had no questions to ask. See page 277

Cl. 803, A. Adams, 816 Beckley heirs, 591 p.3 John Meek, from page 101, April 24 [1850]

The claimant Adams & Beckley's agent, Fayerweather (Captain Meek absent) met this morning and agreed that we should settle the dispute between them in reference to the land at Kalihi; by going to the ground with witnesses and surveyor, and then fixing the bounds.

Kaililaukea, witness for Adams, and for Beckley, Kehoikoekoe, Kaululaau, Kahunahana, Kamaka, Kauki.

N.T. 431v3

No. 803, A. Adams, February 7. 1849

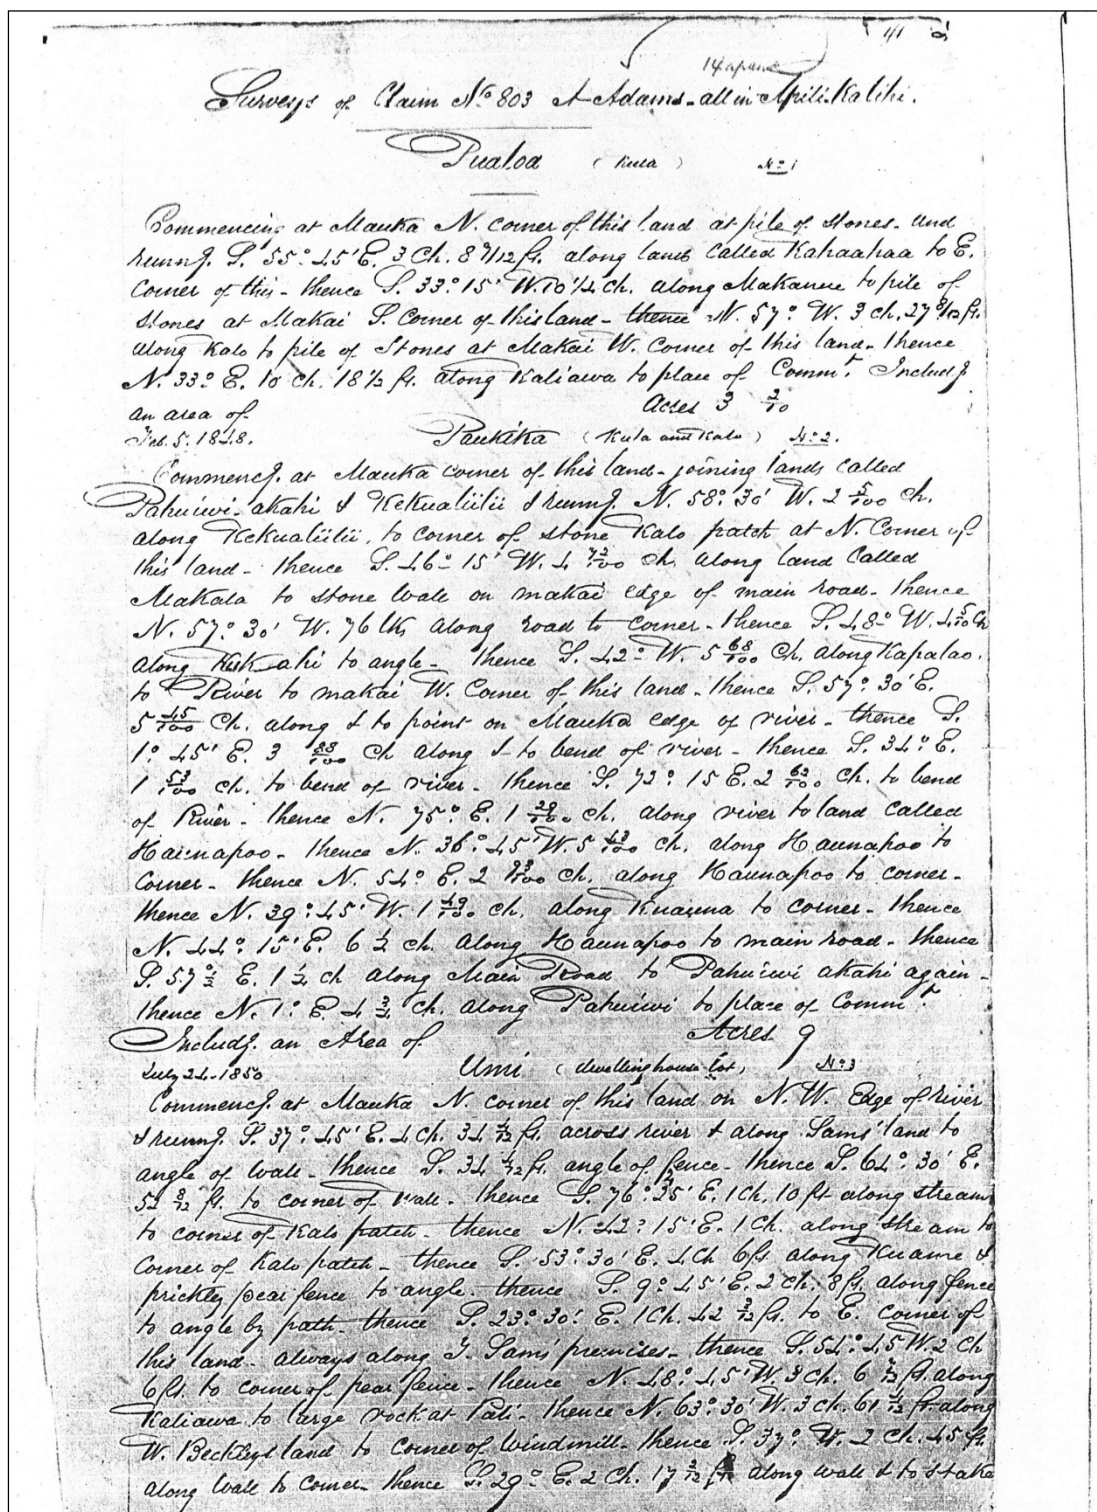

M. Kekuanaoa, sworn, I have seen A. Adams' land called Apili in Kalihi. This is an ili, a taro land, a pasture and there is a stream.

I have heard only that Adams' land had been given to him by Kaahumanu in the year 1828 or 9 and he has always lived there peacefully except for a minor request for the prison patches but which was eventually settled. I had gone to see this land, but I have not known its boundaries.

J. Ii, sworn, I have seen this land of which I think the name Apili. I do not know the boundaries of the land, but Adams' land is from Kaahumanu acquired in the year 1828 or 9 and he has always lived there to the present time; no one has objected.

LCA No. 817 to 821 to G. Beckley, Transcription

No. 818, [G. Beckley], A. H. Fayerweather /or Heirs of George Beckley, Honolulu, Oahu, Hawaiian Islands, October 22, 1847, Claims 817 to 821
F.R. 111-113v2

To Honorable William Lee & others, &c, &c, &c.

Gentlemen: In pursuance of the public notice, I, as attorney for the heirs of the late George Beckley, beg leave to present the following claims of the said heirs.

[817] Cl. 1. To one farm with the fishing grounds attached called Kealahewa, situated in the district of Kohala, Island of Hawaii, given to said George Beckley by King Kamehameha I about or in the year 1811, subject to the division made, or to be made, of such lands as are held under like circumstances.

818 - Cl. 2. Also to one farm with the fishing grounds attached called Kaliheawa, situated in Kalihi, Island of Oahu, given to the said George Beckley by Keopuolani about or in the year 1815, subject to the division made or to be made of such lands as are held under like circumstances.

Both of the above named farms with fishing grounds attached have been in the uninterrupted possession of the said George Beckley and his heirs from the time they were given; the said George Beckley to the present time.

819 - Cl. 3. Also to one farm called Kawailole, situated at the mouth of the valley of Manoa, Island of Oahu, sold to the said George Beckley by Kalaimoku (then Governor of Oahu) about or in the year 1815 and was in the uninterrupted possession of the said George Beckley and his heirs until 1827, when on 7th day of March 1827, said farm was left to Richard Charlton by Poki, Governor of Oahu, for the term of 28 years, to be returned to the heirs of the said George Beckley at the expiration of said term.

820 - Cl. 4. Also to one premises situated in Honolulu, Island of Oahu, given to the said George Beckley by the King Kamehameha I about or in the year 1819, which premises have been enclosed, built upon and occupied by the said George Beckley and his heirs ever since that time. Said premises are bounded:

On the northwest side by the public street

On southwest and southeast by premises of natives and a lot of ground at present occupied by John Voss.

821 - Cl. 5. Also to one premises situated in Honolulu, Island of Oahu, given to the heirs of said George Beckley by the authority of Honolulu, in place of a piece of ground cut off from the premises (received of King Kamehameha I in 1819) as above named, at the time said authorities altered and improved the streets of Honolulu; now in the undisputed possession of the said heirs and under them, in occupation of John Sweetman. Said premises are bounded:

On southeast side by the public street
On southwest by premises owned by Samuel Thompson and northwest and northeast by premises of natives.

Attorney for the Heirs of George Beckley

F.T. 349-351v2

Cl. 817 to 821, A.H. Fayerweather for Heirs of George Beckley, 19 June.

No. 817, 818, 819. The Heirs of George Beckley, viz[?] Ahia (Widow of Beckley) William Beckley, Maria Beckley (wife of Kamakahonu), Abram (infant child of Nancy Beckley), Mary Beckley (wife of A.H. Fayerweather, George Frederick Beckley (absent from the Islands since 1834 and last heard from in 1841 at Valparaiso), Marie Beckley (wife of George W. Punchard).

A.H. Fayerweather, as attorney for the heirs, stated that the land comprised in these three claims were given by the King (at the late division of lands) to the heirs of Beckley without any division, and that he had presented a certificate to this effect to the President of the Board which could not be found: case postponed until another can be obtained). He further stated that in the late division, the King left these lands untouched, and took three other lands on Hawaii called "Muliwai" in "Waipio." "Waaloaa," or Kihapai and Pualoalo in Kohala (See William Beckley's claim No. 976).

No. 1049, Keawepoe
N.R. 609v2

To the Land Commissioners, Greetings: I hereby tell you of my two claims for farm land. They are two valleys, named Kanenelu and Kalauli, in Kalihi, Island of Oahu. I have lived there many years.
KEAWEPOE X

N.T. 318-319v10

No. 1049, Keawepoe, 13 October 1853

Kaipueoe, sworn, the land is comprised of two gardens, valleys named Kanenelu and Kalawili in Upper Kalihi at Mokauea.

Section 1 - Orange, lemon, pandanus, taro and c.[?] at Kanenelu.
Section 2 - Taro, pandanus, orange at Kalawili.

Section 1:
Mauka, "Kaloaloe," lele of Niau is government land
Waikiki and Makai, konohiki land
Ewa, Kalihi Stream.

Land from Mahoe, Keawepoe's father-in-law. Mahoe is Keaka's father, Keaka is Keawepoe's wife.

The land was received by Keawepoe in 1832. Mahoe had received it from Polo, the konohiki, before 1832 and Keawepoe had lived peacefully and died in 1848.

Keaka inherited this land and Naai is her new husband. In September 22, 1852 the konohiki took these places and gave it to Liilii, a new tenant. Keaka does not like this and the konohiki devoured everything (produce) which was on the land.

Naai, the husband of Keaka has a separate land of his own, so he worked for himself, but he made a regular payment of twelve and a half cents for the work day of the land (konohiki). The konohiki preferred personal service so that his area would be rid of weeds. Keaka had argued that the monetary payment was equivalent to work and that he had never refused a payment. She had further argued that he could get hired help with the money she was giving him for every work day; however, the konohiki could not be appeased. He continued to plunder, for the land was abundantly rich with many things which caused him to be full of greed.

Finally, he took the food yield and gave it to someone else leaving Keaka and her children without food, a condition which this day remains in the hands of the konohiki. I believe this action by the konohiki appears as if it had been eviction and it is not right. I believe Keawepoe has a true claim in this land and is in accordance with the law. Keaka had died of small pox and the land has been bequested to her daughter called Keaka. She still lives today and her parents had taken care of the land.

Postponed: until Moehonua, the konohiki is available.

P. Naone, sworn, on 11 August 1851. Kalawaia came to me with a complaint against Haupu and Keliipunui for payment of konohiki work days because these men had failed to report for work. He requested a demand for payment. When I made inquiries into the situation the two men asked to pay their individual obligation of ten dollars with these places and both parties agreed to the plan in my presence which concluded that work on that day.

No. 2710, Haupū, 29 April 1853
2893 vs. Kalawaia, the konohiki

Haupū relates: the testimony of P. Naone before the tax assessor was in error because it was I who had sent a complaint to him (Naone) and not Kalawaia. The konohiki had taken my pasture land, so the police took my complaint to Naone by my request for a settlement and the decision was in my favor. Kamoku, the police, has admitted that he had carried out my request to Naone, and had done as he had been instructed, Kalawaia was not involved in this action.

Kalawaia, sworn, (Konohiki) I have no objections for their claims, however, the loss of konohiki work days should be paid to me according to the law.

AGREEMENT: The claim of Haupū and Keliopunui is justified and they will make settlements for the konohiki Friday work days as they see fit among them.

I shall have no remaining claim by this document not my heirs and substitutes after me. I shall not deny hereafter this statement is binding, just as this document is true. Makai, Keuuiui's land
Ewa, Laihumua's land.

Land from his older brother, Kaula, at the time Liliha was at the fort of Honolulu. Kaula had received the land from their parents at the time of Kamehameha I. They are still living there at the present time and the land has been cultivated and plants of all kinds have been planted.

Wahine, sworn, I have known in the same way about this place as Umi has related in the above testimony.
